INSTRUCTIONS
All applicants whose primary language is not English are required to fulfill the English Language Requirement. If you elect to take the TOEFL, be sure to have the Educational Testing Service send an Official Score Report to the Admissions Officer (institution code number 4778). All summer International Commercial Law LL.M. applicants must meet one of three options for the English requirement. Applicants who wish to waive the English requirement must submit a letter stating the reason why this requirement should be waived.
